

Dear sisters & brothers

I warmly invite you for a healing initiation cycle end April & May 2021

Munay - Ki

Munay Ki

Energy transmitted from heart to heart

A series of initiations with nine healing rituals. These initiations were given to us by the Q'eros, Inca people from the Peruvian Andes. The nine initiations support people to evolve faster in consciousness and to transform to a higher frequency as light beings, so they are better attuned to the raising of the frequency of the New Earth.

The word Munay means love power and Munay-ki means: I love you from the bottom of my heart or I love you as you are in essence. Quechua, the language of many Andes peoples and of the Q'eros, has no word for love, not even for the word will. Munay is Love and Will together. Or the true power of unconditional love. Through a shift of perception, distancing yourself from the past, from old patterns, you learn to let changes take place through your heart. By truly opening your heart, for yourself, for others and for the greater whole, by gaining a higher consciousness and by making and sharing connections.

The Munay-ki is like a train ticket for your journey to freedom to be who you are and to the awareness of oneness. The munay-ki enables you to take giant steps in your own transformation process and takes you beyond the illusion of separation. It restores the connection with your inner power. With your own nature and your heart.

Thus the Munay-ki brings you closer to your mission here on earth. It helps you to stand in your authentic feminine and masculine power, in balance with yourself and in your heart. And that you receive power to create and manifest your dreams and soul mission in this world.

Allowing the seeds to blossom!

In essence, the initiations give you the wisdom and strength to accept your responsibility for all creation. That you are the creator/creator or keeper of your own world. The Incas teach us how there can be a world in harmony and abundance. They live in the belief that we were given the right at birth to a long and happy life in harmony and abundance. This is in contrast to our Western idea that we are born with original sin because we were removed from paradise. Which explains our views on scarcity, shortage, guilt, judgement and unconditional love.

Heaven on earth, the life of Homo Luminus (light being). The only thing you have to do in your life is to manifest the potential of your seeds of light. The germination of these seeds can be initiated through the initiations of the Munay-ki. It is up to you to let the seeds grow to maturity. To large corn cobs, according to the Incas! The Andean tradition shows the way: Live according to the law of Ayni, the law of sacred reciprocity. The way to live in Ayni is to share. The initiations are also for sharing. The more we share, the bigger the seeds within us become and the bigger the possibility to become Homo Luminus (light beings) personally and as humanity. The closer we come to world peace and harmony on planet earth. Therefore the Munay-ki is also the Inca path to enlightenment and world peace.

The nine initiations take place through the chakras. The chakras are the connections between our energy field and the physical body, they are connected to our spinal cord and therefore directly inform our neurophysiological system and our brain. For the Incas, these are the Ñawi, the eyes or gateways through which we can receive energy and light... See below the practical info more details on the 9 rituals.

Latin America is my soul continent where I lived for a long time and have been connected to it for already 37 years in this life. I was initiated as a priestess in the Inca tradition (Q'ero lineage) and baptised in the Sacred Lake Titicaca and also received the Hatun Karpay initiations. The Munay Ki initiations, like the Ñusta Karpay, the Rite of the Womb and so many other Andean rituals and ceremonies, are inspired by my intense connection to this continent. It is an honour to share and pass on the energy and wisdom of indigenous peoples and Mother Nature over there. Both initiations contain for me an energy of coming home, healing, grounding, gentle flow, heart energy, in short, a transformation that is necessary for the whole western culture and for each one of us!

I warmly invite you to participate in these special initiations ...

Both initiations, the Munay-Ki and Nusta Karpay, can be followed separately. They do complement each other very well.

The first initiation is the Hampe Rite, the Initiation of the Healer, a ritual in which we receive healing from the realm of your ancestors. This initiation activates your ability to heal yourself and others.

The second initiation is the Chumpi Rite and consists of the Bands of Power, five bands of energy that help protect you from negative influences.

The third initiation is the Ayni Karpay, the Rite of Harmony, in which you receive seven archetypes in your chakras as seeds of light. This ritual helps you to take distance from your past and create space for the here and now.

The fourth initiation is the Kawaq Rite, the Initiation of the Seer. This rite connects the light fibres of the visual cortex in the back of the head to the third eye and the heart chakra, activating the inner seer within.

The fifth initiation, the Pampamesayok, is the Keeper of the Day and gives you the keys to heal the feminine lineage in yourself and generations before you, in connection with Mother Earth and your Primeval Mother. First we do a constellation to heal the ancestral feminine line.

The sixth initiation, the Altomesayok, is the Keeper of Wisdom. This initiation connects you with the male in yourself, with Father Sun and your Primal Father. First we do a constellation to heal the ancestral male line in yourself and the generations before you.

The seventh initiation is Kuraq Akuyek, the Keeper of the Earth. This initiation connects you to the energy of archangels and the stars, and allows you to turn your dreams into reality.

The eighth initiation is Mosoq Karpay, the Keeper of the Stars. According to tradition, when you receive this rite, your physical body begins to evolve into that of Homo Luminus (light being). It releases you from the past, the ageing process slows down and you become immune to diseases that you were first susceptible to.

The ninth initiation is Taytanchis, the Initiation of the Creator. When you receive this initiation, you awaken the divine light within. It activates the Light of Creation, the Creator within you. The latter makes all previous initiations more powerful.
